

Healing The Wounds Of History

International Conference Lemoenkloof Conference Centre Paarl, South Africa 20 - 22 September 2017

The conference aims to bring together partners working from across continents and cultures to share their experiences with 'Healing of Memories', to recognise the peculiarity of each context and the deeper levels of commonality across the human family.

To Share ancient, old and recent experiences of woundedness, and the processes used to address the pain and the journey to healing and wholeness.

To engage the participants in exploring the appropriateness and effectiveness of the present programmatic areas of the IHOM and to imagine new creative and innovative processes that can contribute to healing the wounds of history.

The conference will be conducted in English.

Conference Registration fee:
